Grant/Loan Program	Program Purpose	Due Date
Mediacom Arts and Culture Grants	Provides funding annually to Dubuque arts and "non-arts organizations" to support a distinct aspect of the organization's arts activities, such as a one-time event, a single production, an exhibition, an educational seminar, or series of related arts activities, such as art classes or training sessions.	31-Jul-18
ShopKo Foundation – Community Charitable Grants	The Shopko Foundation provides grants and scholarship opportunities to enhance the lives of our neighbors in every community we serve. With Shopko's origin in the Pharmacy business, our focus is narrow to maximize impact: the health and wellness of citizens of all ages and the educational needs of students.	Community Health & Wellness, and Educating Youth Grants are reviewed in July
Eastern Iowa Regional Housing Corporation Housing Trust Fund	The mission of the EIRHC Housing Trust Fund is to assist in the provision of providing decent, safe and affordable housing, as well as providing access to the resources for creating housing opportunities to the families served in eastern Iowa. The emphasis is to provide economic assistance to benefit the –moderate, very low, and extremely low-income for a variety of housing needs. Eligible projects include rehabs and repairs of existing housing, including, but not limited to: plumbing,	1-Aug-18 electrical, roofing, structural, energy efficiency, lead based paint issues and handicap accessibility.

Applications are accepted during the months of June, July, and August.
Silos & Smokestacks National Heritage Area General Grant	Funding to support sites, attractions and events of educational value that focus on America's agricultural stories - past and present.	31-Aug-18

National Endowment for the Arts – Our Town	The Our Town grant program supports creative placemaking projects that help to transform communities into lively, beautiful, and resilient places with the arts at their core. Creative placemaking is when artists, arts organizations, and community development practitioners deliberately integrate arts and culture into community revitalization work – placing arts at the table with land-use, transportation, economic development, education, housing, infrastructure, and public safety strategies. This funding supports local efforts to enhance quality of life and opportunity for existing residents, increase creative activity, and create a distinct sense of place.	1-Sep-18
Alliant Energy Foundation’s Community Grants	These grants are directed to programs and projects that benefit customers in Alliant Energy communities in Iowa and Wisconsin. We fund projects that fit into one of our three focus areas: Helping Families, Education and the Environment.	1-Sep-18
Alliant Energy Hometown Safety Grant	Hometown Safety Grants are awarded to organizations and projects that serve or protect the community. This includes police and fire departments, as well as schools, libraries and other public service organizations.	1-Sep-18
Iowa Brownfield/Grayfield Redevelopment Tax Credit Program	This program assists with redevelopment aimed at improving Iowa’s economy while reducing environmental hazards.	1-Sep-18
Iowa’s Living Roadways Projects Program	Program goals include helping smaller communities compete for additional funds to enhance their transportation corridors for residents and travelers alike, and beautification of communities through the use of native plants to provide for lower long-term maintenance and costs.	1-Sep-18

Revitalize Iowa's Sound Economy (RISE)	Local Development – projects which support local economic development but which do not require an immediate commitment of funds (e.g. industrial parks, tourist attractions), or do not meet the Immediate Opportunity criteria.	1-Sep-18
